CLEVELAND, O., July 11 .- When the minth inning ended to-day the score was a tie and the home rooters were on the auxious seat as to the final outcome. The visitors suffered from the same trouble in this game as in the others and that was failure to take advantage of every oppor-tunity. The attendance was 900. Score:

Grand Master Merrill will also speak. The occasion will be made impressive and on a scale of grandeur commensurate with the occasion. Leading citizens are taking great interest in the coming celebration and pro-pose helping to make the affair a great suc-

COMFORT FOR WIMAN.

Public Opinion, a Financier Writes, Exon crates Him from Intentional Wrong. New York, July 11.-Erastus Wiman passo busy day in the Tombs prison to-day. His mail was unusually large and he had many visitors. Among these were ex-Congressman Darwin R. James, president of the board of trade and transportation, and Capt. Ambrose

Snow, ex-president of the board.

Mr. Wiman was particularly cheerful at the receipt of a letter to-day from a well-known financier asking his opinion concerning a new undertaking. The writer says among other things: "The concensus of public opinion without exception, as far as I can learn, exonerates you from intentional wrong-doing, and would rejoice to see you at once rehabilitated and your enemies boycotted."

Warsaw, July 11 .- One hundred and sixty of the persons arrested here on April 25 for taking part in the street demonstration in celebrating the centenary of the rebellion of Kilinsky have been banished to Siberia for periods ranging from two to five years. The people cheered and shouted until they were surrounded by police, and 240 persons, including 32 womes, were arrested.

SENATE TOOK A SPURT.

Diplomatic and Consular, Invalid Pensions and Military Academy Appropriation Bills Disposed of Yesterday.

The Senate is making up for lost time and is now disposing of the appropriation bills at a rapid rate. The record for yesterday is three: The diplomatic and consular, the invalid pension and the military academy appropriation bills. propriation bills.

The only one of these which excited any debate was the pension bill, and on this a discussion of the respective pension policies of the R publican and Democratic parties was precipitated. This took a rather wide range, and an attack on Commissioner Lockers and Secretary Smith broadened to a sharp arraignment of the policy of the Democratic party in general. Senators Cullom and Gallinger led the attack while Senator Palmer acted on the defensive.

Among the amendments to the diplomatic bill was an appropriation of $5,000 for the

COMMISSIONERS SUSTAINED,

Chief Justice Bingham Renders Two De-cisions of Considerable Importance. Chief Justice Bingham yesterday decided people of the District, and in both cases he sustained the action of the Commissioners.

The first case was that of Plumber Thomas W. Kerr, who petitioned for a writ of man-

W. kerr, who potitioned for a writ of man-damus compelling the Commissioners to grant him a plumber's license and a permit to make an excavation.

The second case was that of Luke J. Kear-ney, of No. 1100 Fifteenth street northwest, who also petitioned for a writ of mandamus compelling the Commissioners to grant him a liquor license.

Chief Justice Bingham's decisions were ap-pealed to the Court of Appeals.

Chief Justice Bingham's decisions were appealed to the Court of Appeals.

In the case of Kerr Chief Justice Bingham said the act of Congress 1892 conferred ample powers upon the Commissioners to establish and enforce piumbing regulations governing the practice of plumbing in the District, and he held that the appointment of a plumbing board was justifiable and that the Commissioners had the right to organize such a board. This board, he held, simply ascertained the fitness of applicants, and it was discretionary with the Commissioners whether or not they should appoint any one recommended by the board. If an examination of an applicant on matters of hygiene and physics was shown to be unfair the court could intervene, but in Kerr's case no such mention had been made. The writ was thereupon refused. upon refused.

In the case of Kearney the chief justice

In the case of Kearney the chief justice said that the petitioner had compiled with all the terms of the liquor law in making his application for license. He held that the Commissioners under the law of 1893 had a right and power to grant or refuse a liquor license as in their judgment they see best. They also have discretionary power, he held, and he stated that he did not find any where in the act a requirement that the Commissioners should grant a license.

LENTO WAS BADLY HANDLED

Rumors Rife Before the Race That Jim Pagan Would Win.

Jocky Murphy Was Substituted for Clare, But Lento Did Not Better By the Switch. Jim Fagan Won the Race Through Murphy Losing His Whip in the Stretch.

Good racing and lively betting were the features at the Island track yesterday after-noon. While no long shots landed, yet Keime was the only pronounced favorite to score the other events being captured by wellbacked second choices. The finish in the second race between Keime and Grand Prix was a hair raiser, the judges giving the decis ion to Keime. Burns had the mount on Grand Prix, and the backers of the latter were dissatisfied with Burns' finish, as he did not use his whip when he was told before the race to do so if the necessity arose. As it was, Grand Prix just failed to get up at the end.

There were suspicions of a job in the first race, and the judges endeavored to prevent any crooked work by taking Clare off Lento and substituting Murphy. This action was taken because of rumors which reached judges that Lento was not meant, and tajudges that Lento was not meant, and tabetting against the latter served to confirm these reports. From 6 to 5 the odds receded to 11 to 5, while Jim Fagan was backed down from 6 to 1 to 5 to 2. Just as soon as Murphy was put up on Lento the price against the latter was cut to 7 to 5. Murphy raced Lento at breakneck speed from the stand to the post, and then in the actual race lost his whip just when Lento seemed pretty certain of outsprinting Jim Fagan. In consequence of these handicaps Lento was beaten half a length by Fagan.

The third race was for two-year olds, and Patti was made an even-money favorite, while as good as 4 to 1 could be had against Miss Doloris filly. On form, these odds should have been reversed, and the result bore this out, as the filly galloped home three lengths in advance of Patti.

Annorean, Blackwood, and Freezer were all backed to win the fourth, with large prices againsr the other starters. Blackwood was unfortunate in the first furlong, Manlove getting off none too well and being obliged to puli up to avoid colliding with another horse. Annorean soon took the lead and held it throughout, winning by four lengths from Freezer.

The closing event was for meidens, and the best backed were Free Press, Pickaway, and Imp. Bones. The first named took the lead in the stretch, and, although hard pressed by Pickaway, lasted long enough to win by a half length. Summaries:
